

Drain Valve Assembly Barrier Diesel Plus Fire Pump Controllers

All Diesel Plus diesel engine controllers are equipped with an internal barrier which surrounds the drain valve solenoid assembly. The barrier is designed to provide the internal components with a minimum degree of protection against accidental water spray.

The barrier is attached to the interior of the enclosure with four slotted hex-head screws, making it easy to remove and re-install.

